IMPORTANT COURSE REQUIREMENTS

NCCP Level 1 Phase 1 CanSkate: Must provide proof of being minimum 16 years of age, passed Preliminary Dance, Preliminary Freeskate and Preliminary Skating Skills, in addition to one Jr. Bronze test. NCCP Level 1 Phase 1 CanSkate course was updated by Skate Canada National September 2007 to include the NCCP Theory course Introduction to competition Part A. This course will give you the "Trained" status within the Instruction Beginner Context and after you have registered as a Skate Canada CanSkate Coach for two consecutive years you are now required to become "Certified" as a CanSkate Coach.

NCCP Level 1 Phase 2: Home Study It is recommended that the Home Study (introduction to Figure Skating) is purchased when registering for the Level 1 Phase 1 CanSkate course. The Phase 2 Home Study is to be completed in full and returned when registering for the Phase 3 course.

NCCP Level 1 Phase 3 Primary STARSkate: Must provide proof of passed JR. Bronze Freeskate, Dance and Skating Skills. All coaches must have completed their Level 1 Phase 1 CanSkate course and CanSkate assignment. The Phase 2 Home Study is to be completed in full and returned with the registration form for the Phase 3 course.

NCCP Level 1 Phase 4: Practical A Level 1 Candidates have two years to become fully Level 1 certified from the date of their Phase 3 course completion. All Coaches must hand in their Practical assignments for marking a minimum of 6 weeks before the 2 year deadline.
